

No Contest Clause

I, _____ of _____,
born _____, and being of sound mental health and full mental capacity, do instate the following provision to my will regarding the division and dispersal of my estate:

Should any beneficiary named in my will contest, challenge, or dispute the validity of this will or my Trustee—barring probably legal cause brought on by the Trustee knowingly and willfully violating my written directive—said beneficiary shall have all bequeathals, monetary gains, and provisions allotted by the will revoked in their entirety. Revoked benefits shall then be bequeathed to _____ instead.

I, _____, hereby declare this provision to be an addition or change to my will. All other aspects of my will are to remain intact.
