

Provision for Disinheritance

I, _____, of _____, born _____, and being of sound mental health and full mental capacity, do instate the following provision to my will regarding the division and dispersal of my estate:

I make no provisions for _____. For all intents and purposes concerning my estate and all benefits of this deed, I will consider _____ _____ to have predeceased me.

Any reference to any other bequeathals, benefits, or monetary gains previously allotted to _____ are hereby revoked. Any bequeathals, benefits, or monetary gains previously allotted to _____ in prior writings should be bestowed up _____ instead.

I, _____, hereby declare this provision to be an addition or change to my will. All other aspects of my will are to remain intact.
