

Wedding Videographer Contract

This agreement is made on _____ between _____, hereafter "Videographer," and _____, hereafter "Couple," regarding the videotaping of the Couple's marriage on _____ at _____ and/or {reception venue}:

The Couple will retain the videographer for the _____ at _____ on _____ from _____ to _____. They will pay the videographer _____, plus _____ for travel expenses. Should the ceremony/reception run late, or the videographer be required to stay later, a _____ charge will apply.

The Couple and the Videographer may have _____ meetings in person for no more than _____ prior to the wedding. More than _____ will result in an _____ charge. This time may be spent discussing the Couple's style, relationship, and requirements.

The Videographer will supply _____ own equipment, including camera, lighting necessities, tripods, and more. The Videographer _____ have an assistant.

The Couple will provide the Videographer with a rough schedule of the ceremony/reception, as well as important moments or events they want covered (bouquet toss, first dance, cake cutting).

The Couple will provide _____ to help the Videographer identify important people and interactions to capture in the moment.

The Videographer will have full artistic license at the ceremony and priority access to filming the Couple over guests.

The Videographer and the Couple acknowledge that some guests would prefer not to be filmed, and neither party shall insist upon it with reticent guests.

The Videographer agrees to follow the requests of the officiant/venue with regards to what can or cannot be filmed.

The Videographer agrees to _____. The Videographer will conduct _____ self in a respectful and professional manner.

The Couple _____ agree to feed the Videographer at the wedding.

Should the Videographer be unable to record the wedding, _____ will

_____.

The Videographer retains all copyright to the video. _____ will release it to the Couple in _____, and they are welcome to copy and share it as they see fit.

The Videographer _____ permitted to show, share, or submit the video for promotional or competitive purposes.

A deposit of _____ is due at the signing of this contract. The remaining amount is due _____ days before the wedding. Cancellations before _____ will result in a refund minus _____. No refunds _____ days before the wedding.

(Videographer)

(Date)

(Couple)

(Date)